News and Comment

"Uncle Joe" Cannon at 78 has thrown his hat into the ring for Congress again.
He is almost as spry as the Governor of Kentucky.

Two San Francisco clergymen have resigned to become undertakers, doubtless believing that there is more money in burying people than in preaching their funerals.

The California prune crop is immense,
being estimated at 200,000,000 pounds.
Boarding house keepers are jubilant,
while boarders are correspondingly depressed.

The superintendent of public schools
in Adair and the city attorney of Catlettsburg were married last month, but it has just been made public. This sounds strange, but the one was Miss Pearl Hindman, the other Edgar Poe Harris. The question now is, will he live with her or she with him, or will one resign?

A convict in the Tennessee penitentiary was caught making counterfeit money. As he is in for life, he is one man that can go up against Uncle Sam
with impunity.

Three disreputables in Indiana claim to have been cured by eating a spoonful of boiled sand a day. We have always heard that it is good to have sand in one's craw.

The weather bureau is said to cost over a million and a half a year. A good deal of money for the people to pay to be told that the weather is going to be just the reverse of what it promises.

A secret society in Atlanta has the distinction of being the only one whose president is under sentence of death for the murder of a young girl. He was elected after his conviction, but this sort of expression of confidence will not help the order in public favor.

If Peter Peter, the pumpkin eater, had had a wife and couldn't keep her, with no more expense than that, how are we poor devils to keep ours, with meat and everything soaring skyward in price?

When beef gets to be a dollar a pound
there will be less effort to solve the mystery of hash.

A St. Louis court will be called on to determine whether the head is a part of the body. If it were not, habeas corpus proceedings would seldom be invoked.
Few men would care to have the body if the head was omitted.

A Missouri woman choked to death on a beefsteak and a three-line telegram told the story. When beef gets to be a dollar a pound, as the meat packers predict, such an occurrence will be given first-page, double-end prominence to show how wealthy the victim was and what an envied position she enjoyed.

The Louisville Herald is rather a good good newspaper, but it needs an editorial writer. The guff the one on deck gives its readers is rotten.

The Commerce Commission says
"Man's failure" was the cause of the New Haven wreck. It might have been the old Atlantic way of laying it on the woman, but there was none to lay it on.

An o'possum was caught on a prominent street the other night in the rural community known as Lexington in the adjoining county of Fayette. He possibly wanted to see what Fashion Week
there is like.

The special session of the Tennessee
Legislature has adjourned without passing the three anti-liquor laws, which it was called to pass, and Gov. Hooper says he may call another extra session. The disgraceful session just ended would have conveyed the idea to a less dense individual to let such a body go back to the vile worm from which it sprung to be known no more.

The Irvine Sun has arisen, with John W. Watkins as editor, who publishes a rather grandiloquent salutory. It will be Republican in politics and patent inside in its composition.

Sixty divorces were granted and 92
marriage licenses issued in Cincinnati last week, which is more than maintaining the statement of the State Secretary that one couple out of every seven in Ohio obtained divorce. There were 43, 357 marriages in the State last year and 13,724 divorces.

The special session of the Tennessee
Legislature changed the law from hanging to electrocution, but that seems too easy a death for the rapscallions who engaged in gun play on the floor of the House.

The Louisville Times is the best afternoon paper in the country, but it is not so good as usual when W. S. Kalenbacher's political dope is omitted.

seeds at attractive prices. See us

Free Masonry in the West.

The 125th anniversary of the introduction of Free Masonry into Kentucky and the "West" is to be celebrated in Lexington November 17. Lexington Lodge
No. 1 was chartered by the Grand Lodge of Virginia on that day a century and a quarter ago, and four other lodges were established by the same authority before the dawn of the 19th century. The occasion is to be made a memorable event in the history of the order in Kentucky.

Col. McNab's Long Service.

Col. John McNab will have been a conductor on the L. & N. for 43 years tomorrow. He is the oldest passenger conductor in point of service on the road and in all that time, he tells the Frankfort State Journal, no passenger under his care has been killed or maimed.
Col. McNab, he is on the Governor's staff, is a rich man, but he cannot give up the pleasure of meeting friends on his run between Lexington and Louisville, so every spring, after spending the winter on his orange farm in Florida, where he hob-nobs with millionaires and sails around in his own private yacht,
he returns to his run, where everybody knows and loves him. Every Christmas he gets enough presents to fill a car
from the ladies, with whom he is an especial favorite, because of his courtesies.

a Mattress. You know what you are getting.

Stearns & Foster Mattresses are made of Clean, Sanitary Cotton; felted into hundreds of little webs forming many Springs, Buoyant layers standing nearly three feet high. These layers are then LAID BY HAND and compressed to ONE-SIXTH their original height and encased in the ticking; then tufted to just the proper tension so as to be Soft, yet Firm, half yielding to your figure, but supporting it in perfect relaxation.

You will say—

"I never Knew a Mattress could be so Comfortable."

That's just what satisfied users of Stearns & Foster Mattresses are saying.
You owe it to yourself to get one and enjoy rest that is Refreshing—Comfortable—

POLITICS IN FAYETTE.

The political pot is beginning to simmer over in Fayette and as is usual over there, we may expect to see it boil over. Democratic Campaign Chairman Hon. Thomas A. Combs has stirred up the monkeys in the aggregation of sore-headed Democrats, Republicans and Bull Moores and made them wiggle and squirm by distributing a folder with pictures of the good roads that formerly prevailed in the county and one of the handsomest court-houses in the State, built by the Democrats, with the question asked, what have the fusionists built?

The folder shows that few if any of the fair promises made four years ago have been redeemed and that the fusionists have defied the law by failing to publish annually a financial statement and list of claims allowed against the county.

One of the claims made four years ago was that Judge Bullock was spending too much money on the turnpikes. The folder shows that in three years and seven months the Democrats spent $258,250.60 and the fusionist administration spent $312,513.66 from June 1, 1910, to Aug. 1, 1913. Then the pikes of Fayette county were the models for the world, and kept in condition for any kind of travel. Now with $54,263.06 more than ever spent on them, they are in some cases as bad as dirt roads, with none of them in first-class condition.

The cry of machine politics four years ago was one of the fusionists' main liabilities. This time the fusion ticket was thrust upon its supporters by a "Committee of Fifteen," who met in secret conclave over a Mill-street saloon. They were afraid to go before the people. The Democratic ticket was nominated in a fair and open primary, in which 4,980 voters participated. Under present conditions the tables are turned on the fusion aggregation will now have to defend the manifest machine rule.

In conversation with an expert book keeper, he told us that he had never seen matters in so chaotic a condition as they are in the Fayette county court-house. He is trying to find heads and tails to matters, but it seems impossible. Incompetency, ignorance and extravagance are shown on every hand and when those conditions are shown, as the committee will show them up, it will be farewell for the crowd, whose desire for office is greater than their ability to fill them properly and who got in by fooling a sufficient number of people, who will not be fooled again. In fact, the utter and complete failure of the fusionists to comply with any of their promises seems almost to give the Democrats, headed by that victor of many political battles, and man of resource, Judge Frank A. Bullock, for county judge, a walk-over, and the county a redemption from incompetent and extravagant control.

The Republicans of New York met in State convention, last week and made numerous recommendations looking to the rehabilitation of the once great party. A National convention is proposed "as soon as practical" to consider the condition of misfortune that have come regrets over the situation.

But Mr. Hampton, the splendid citizen that he has always been, the true friend that he is, must not put himself up against the laws of the state and expect them to cringe at his bidding or crumble at his feet. He must obey the law or take the consequences the same as the humblest man in the state.

Judge Benton is treating the offender just as he would the humblest man in the district, not as a stoic judge might treat an old offender but rather as "man to man," and Mr. Hampton is equally frank and courteous. But these are not the questions. The question is where is the right and where is the wrong? How best is the question to be settled? We have confidence in the supremacy of the law.

Judge Benton is doing just what he ought to do, what he was elected to do and just what he swore in his oath of office he would do, no more, no less.

Mr. Hampton is deliberately putting the Court to the test. He is forcing Judge Benton to do what is painful personally for him to do and what he would gladly avoid but for the oath he has taken before his God and in the presence of the people of his district. If the witness can or does in any way keep Judge Benton from enforcing the law then the Court will lose its power and will be brought into contempt. We had better quit making laws and go to building altars and making a laughing stock of ourselves.

This matter concerns not Clark county alone but the entire state and especially this circuit district. Court convenes in our county next week and later on in the other counties of the district. The same questions that have come up in Clark are liable to come up in our own and other counties. We certainly trust the results may be different. In any event that may arise the Climax stands for the enforcement of the law and will exert every means within its power in upholding the Court in maintaining the dignity, strength and enforcement of the law. We are not an alarmist, we do not believe the same conditions as now exist in Clark will confront us in Madison, but whether they do or not we believe it to be the duty of good citizenship everywhere, of every voter in the county, in the district, in the state, in the crisis that now confronts us to give his most earnest support to the upholding of the law.

This is a serious matter and worthy of the thoughtful consideration of every patriotic citizen. Let every man do his part in strengthening the arms of those attempting to enforce the law and then election frauds that have cursed the state for so many years will be swept away.

A Socksdolager.

The Interior Journal printed as a list of an occurrence in Danville but the Advocate remarked that "Nobody in Danville had ever heard of the experience." Then Sauffey got in this. There are quite a number of things that the good people of our neighbor city do not hear of—through the columns of their newspapers. The Advocate has probably not yet heard of the Charley McElwain letters; it has never printed anything about them. Roll over, Mac.

Extremes Meet.

A hungry young cyclist had put up for the night at a wayside inn and found the supper rather scanty, the most substantial part of it being a single sausage roll.

"Is that the best you can do in the way of sausage roll?" he asked.

"Why," said the host, "isn't it good?"

"Oh, it's good enough, perhaps, but the ends of it don't suit me."

"The ends. What's the matter with them?"

"Too near together," said the hungry youth and the inn keeper took the hint.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION

48th State Convention Will be Held in Louisville Oct.
7th to 10th

BIG ATTENDANCE EXPECTED

Low Railroad Rates and an Attractive Program With Speakers of National Reputation — Banner for County
With Largest Attendance.

Louisville, Ky. (Special) — Every Sunday school worker in Kentucky, who is at all interested in this great movement, will find something absorbing during every hour of the four-day convention of the Kentucky Sunday School Association which convenes in Louisville Tuesday, October 7 to 10 inclusive. This is the 48th State Convention.

Representatives from every Sunday School in Kentucky are expected to be in attendance. The railroads have made a very low rate of one fare plus twenty-five cents for the round trip. Every Sunday school worker in Kentucky is invited to attend the convention, who by enrolling and paying a one dollar fee, may become a delegate with all convention privileges.

First Christian Church, Fourth and Breckinridge, where convention will be held.

Marion Lawrence, of Chicago, general secretary of the World's and the International Sunday School Association and one of the most popular Sunday school men of America, will be present. Mr. Lawrence is so busy that he will attend only one other state convention this year.

Splendid List of Speakers.

Rev. M. B. McNutt, of Chicago, specialist in the rural school problems, and many other prominent speakers are scheduled for some of the most interesting addresses. Among the other speakers are:

Prof. T. J. Conates, Supervisor of the Rural Schools of Kentucky; Rev. M. B. McNutt, Chicago, Specialist in the Rural Church Problems; Mrs. Zillah Foster Stevens, Altam, Ill., Superintendent Temperance Department International Sunday School Association; President R. H. Crossfield, Lexington, Transylvania University; Rev. W. J. Clarke, Adult Superintendent Kentucky Christian Bible School; Hon. J. B. McFerran, prominent financier of Louisville.

The topics to be discussed cover a wide range of subjects pertinent to Sunday school work. Among the many topics are the following:

"Evangelism in the Sunday School"; "Sunday School Institutes"; "Educational Values of Missionary Instruction"; three addresses on "Souls Winning"; "The Temperance Pledge"; "The Adult Class in the Temperance Fight"; "Seek the Welfare of the Children."

Marion Lawrence, General Secretary
International Sunday School Association.

During the convention hours will be set apart for conferences on the various divisions and departments of the Sunday school, when programs prepared for special classes of workers will be arranged. Among these will be conferences for the elementary, secondary and adult divisions. One for Sunday school executives, including pastors, superintendents, secretaries, librarians, choristers, chairmen of committees, etc.

A banner will be presented to the county having the largest number of registered delegates, and to the county whose registered delegates travel the largest aggregate number of miles.

Another interesting feature of the forty-eighth state convention will be the great mass meeting of thousands of Sunday school workers in an open-air service in one of the parks, to be conducted by Marion Lawrence. The grand old hymns of the church will be sung at this outdoor service as well as during the regular sessions of the convention.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a running, sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; the cause out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surface.

We will give the Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

NEWS NOTES

The State University Wild Cats defeated the Butler College football team at Lexington 21 to 7.

Two drug crazed negro boys ran amuck at Harrison, Miss., and ten persons were killed before they were captured and lynched.

The glorious meeting in a tobacco warehouse at Maysville, conducted by Evangelist Fife, closed Friday with 115 confessions.

Judge Young held the Montgomery local option election to be void and illegal. The drys had 900 majority according to returns.

Mr. J. C. Dykes, of Clark, and Miss Nannie May Brookshire, of this city, were united in marriage at Lexington Sunday by Rev. I. J. Spencer.

Six saloon licenses were issued in Somerset on the eve of the local option election, thereby insuring bar rooms for another year, no matter how the election goes.

The discovery that some of the bags of silver in the San Francisco mint have been opened necessitated a recount of the $61,395,000 stored there. So far but $7 have been found to be missing.

A. A. Clay, of Indian Fields, has sold his farm containing 177 acres, on Hinkson Creek, Montgomery county, to Roy Burns and Thomas Coons, for $102.50 an acre. Walter and Charles Boyd have bought the Marion Boyd farm, containing 100 acres, near Judy, at $70.

What the capital of the Bluegrass needs, if you will permit the suggestion is a Parental Home, where innocent, dependent children can be cared for. It is criminal to send these unfortunate little ones to a penal institution.

John T. Jett, committed suicide in Mason county. He was a tobacco buyer during the night rider times and was threatened by the mobs, but he defied them and dared a man to enter his house. He was barricaded and armed and of course they didn't.

Prison Commissioner Dan E. O'Sullivan says that Fayette county has imposed more burdens on the Reform School than any other county in the State in proportion to population. At one time fully ten per cent. of the inmates were from Lexington and Fayette county.

Two boy bandits held up an Express train in Alabama, overpowered the engineer and fireman and made six postal clerks and two express messengers hold up their hands while they took $50,000 from the express car. Such cowards deserve no place in the south. One determined man could have put the robbers to flight.

Attorney J. A. Edge, of Lexington, has been indicted for false swearing by the Franklin county grand jury, he having sworn that in a case Judge Stout permitted mob at Georgetown to seize and intimidate. The judge says that he was out at dinner when the thing occurred and that when he heard of it secured a release of Edge.

The One Fault.

There was a man
Of history and
Whose every plan
Went to the bad.
He did not drink,
He did not swear,
Nor slyly wink
At siren's fair.
Ideals fair,
Ideals high
He would reveal
He could not lie.
He did not steal,
His worth you'd vow
Was something strong,
And yet somehow
His luck went wrong.
He hoped-for bliss
He'd never clutch,
His fault was this—
He talked too much.

Obliging Her.

The sweet young thing was being shown through the Baldwin locomotive works.

"What is that thing?" she asked, pointing with her dainty parasol.

"That," answered the guide, "is an engine boiler."

She was an up-to-date young lady and at once became interested. "And why do they call it an engine?" she again inquired.

"To make the engine tender," politely replied the resourceful guide.
